

IN THE EYE OF NEW ARTISTIC WHIRLWINDS

VOLUME ONE

Copenhagen-based art association Tofu Collective is creating a publication for interdisciplinary and diverse explorations of the next gen of artists from Taiwan to promote a pluralism of hyper-contemporary perspectives to an international art audience – and you are invited!

As part of our vision to strengthen the creative ties between East and West, we're now reaching out for possible collaborators and contributors to help our new journal come to life. We are looking for artists, writers, scholars, curators, creative communities, art institutions or others who are in any way professionally engaged in the contemporary art scene in Taiwan.

CONTEMPORARY IDENTITIES

As a way to advance new understandings of contemporary Taiwan by giving voice to an exceptional and visionary generation of artistic practices, movements and communities, the first volume will be focused around the theme of contemporary identities expressing an expanse of reflections, explorations and dreams on identity-related topics.

Key words to inspire you: counter culture, cultural preservation, belongingness, self-expression, inclusion, equality, gender, body, sexuality.

PURPOSE

We believe that giving voice to the next generation shaping the future of the dynamic and diverse fields of contemporary art in Taiwan can help:

- Create more global awareness of the brilliant, burgeoning and imaginative contemporary art scene in Taiwan and its emerging artists
- Illustrate the importance of recognizing the country's independence through contemporary art as vital catalyst of ideas, reflections, dialogues and dreams of our times.
- Deconstruct west-centric notions of the country through new representations and cross-cultural collaborations beyond Euro-American frameworks.
- Contribute with new and unique transcultural perspectives on the all-encompassing phenomena and issues we face as global citizens in a world of tension and change.
